

FILING A COMPLAINT WITH THE EDISON TOWNSHIP ETHICS BOARD

An official complaint form (attached) is required to be filed by person(s) alleging violations of N.J.S.A. 40A:9-22.1 et seq., the Local Government Ethics Law (“Code of Ethics”). This form, along with the Code of Ethics is available at the Municipal Clerk’s office. Please read the Code of Ethics carefully and cite the section(s) you believe were violated. Additionally, please note that the only provisions of the Code of Ethics which contain substantive standards that can be violated are found at N.J.S.A. 40A:9-22.5.

A complaint must be notarized in order to be accepted. You are required to file an original and two copies of the complaint and all documentation. If you file a complaint against more than one respondent, providing a copy of your complaint for each respondent named will facilitate processing. Send your complaint to:

Edison Township Ethics Board
c/o Edison Township Municipal Clerk
100 Municipal Boulevard
Edison, NJ 08817

Receipt of your complaint by the Ethics Board will be acknowledged in writing within 30 days of receipt. The Ethics Board will conduct a preliminary investigation as to whether a complaint is outside its jurisdiction, frivolous or without any factual basis and will notify you and the person(s) against whom the complaint is filed in writing as to their initial findings. All proceedings, including your complaint and any inquiries made into this complaint, will be conducted in a confidential manner until the Ethics Board issues its decision in writing.

After its preliminary investigation, if the Ethics Board concludes that complaint is not outside its jurisdiction, frivolous or without any factual basis, the Board shall conduct a further investigation. The subject of the complaint shall have the opportunity to present to the Board any statements or other information concerning the complaint he or she wishes. The Board shall consider the matter based on the documents submitted or obtained, however, the Board in its discretion may direct the complainant, the subject of the complaint, or any other person deemed to have relevant information to appear before the Board or to provide the Board with any additional information.

If the Ethics Board determines that no violation of the Code of Ethics has been committed by the subject of the complaint, the Ethics Board shall issue a Notice of Dismissal to the individual and provide a copy to the complainant.

If the Board determines, based upon the results of the investigation that a violation of the Code of Ethics has been committed by the subject of the complaint, the Board shall issue a Notice of Violation to the individual containing the nature of the violation, assessing a penalty, and advising the individual of his or her opportunity to request an administrative hearing. Any administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq. The Ethics Board shall determine whether it will conduct the administrative hearing or whether to transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a “contested case” for the rendering of a decision.
